Moment of Missions David & Jan Thomae

Confession of Faith from the Lausanne Covenant

We affirm our belief in the one-eternal God, Creator and Lord of the world, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who governs all things according to the purpose of His will. He has been calling out from the world a people for Himself, and sending His people back into the world to be His servants and His witnesses, for the extension of His Kingdom, the building up of Christ's body, and the glory of His name. We confess with shame that we have often denied our calling and failed in our mission, by becoming conformed to the world or by withdrawing from it. Yet we rejoice that even when borne by earthen vessels the Gospel is still a precious treasure. To that task of making that treasure known in the power of the Holy Spirit we desire to dedicate ourselves anew.

We affirm the divine inspiration, truthfulness and authority of both Old and New Testament Scriptures in their entirety as the only written Word of God, without error in all that it affirms, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice. We also affirm the power of God's Word to accomplish His purpose of salvation. The message of the Bible is addressed to all mankind. For God's revelation in Christ and in Scripture is unchangeable. Through it the Holy Spirit still speaks today. He illumines the minds of God's people in every culture to perceive its truth freshly through their own eyes and thus discloses to the whole church ever more of the many-colored wisdom of God.

Invitation Confession of Sin

from the Valley of Vision

O Lord, my every sense, member, faculty, affection, is a snare to me. I can hardly open my eyes but I envy those above me, or despise those below. I covet honor and riches of the mighty, and am proud and unmerciful to the rags of others; If I behold beauty it is a bait to lust, or see deformity, it stirs up loathing and disdain; How soon do slanders, vain humor and ungodly speeches creep into my heart! Am I beautiful? What fuel for pride! Am I deformed? What an occasion for complaining! Am I gifted? How I lust after applause! Am I unlearned? How I despise what I have not! Am I in authority? How prone to abuse my trust, make my will the law, exclude others' enjoyment, serve my own interest and policy! Am I inferior? How much I grudge others' success! Am I rich? How proud I become! You know that all these are snares in my corrupted heart, and that my greatest snare is myself. I grieve that my understanding is slow, my thought vile, my expression dull, my life unworthy; Yet what can you expect of dust but levity, of corruption but defilement? Keep me ever mindful of my natural state, but let me not forget my heavenly title, or the grace that can deal with every sin.

Assurance of Pardon Hymn of Meditation

Isaiah 53:6

"Jesus Is Our Great Salvation" (1)

Jesus is our great salvation, worthy of our best esteem;
He has saved his favorite nation; join to sing aloud of him.
He has saved us! Christ alone could us redeem.
He has saved us! Christ alone could us redeem.

When involved in sin and ruin, and no helper there was found,
Jesus our distress was viewing; grace did more than sin abound.
He has called us, with salvation in the sound.
He has called us, with salvation in the sound.

Let us never Lord forget thee; make us walk as children here.
We will give thee all the glory of the love that brought us near.
Bid us praise thee, and rejoice with holy fear.
Bid us praise thee, and rejoice with holy fear.

Free election known by calling, is a privilege divine;
Saints are kept from final falling; all the glory Lord be thine!
All the glory, all the glory, Lord is thine!
All the glory, all the glory, Lord is thine!

Scripture Reading (PB950) Romans 16

Confession of Faith Westminster Shorter Catechism, #53-56

Leader: What is the third commandment?
People: The third commandment is: You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Leader: What does the third commandment require?
People: The third commandment requires the holy and reverent use of God's names, titles, qualities, regulations, word, and works.

Leader: What does the third commandment forbid?
People: The third commandment forbids our treating as unholy or abusing anything God uses to make Himself known.

Leader: What is the reason for the third commandment?
People: The reason for the third commandment is that the Lord our God will not allow those who break this commandment to escape His righteous judgment, although they may escape punishment from men.
