

THE LORD'S DAY ~ August 28, 2016

MORNING WORSHIP 10:30 A.M.

Welcome to Covenant Presbyterian Church

to all who are spiritually weary and seek rest;
to all who mourn and long for comfort;
to all who struggle and need strength;
to all who sin and need a Savior;
to all who are strangers and want fellowship;
to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
to all who will come,
this church opens wide her doors and offers welcome
in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

Preparation for Worship Thank you for silencing all electronic devices.

“Worship is . . . the quickening of the conscience by [God’s] holiness . . .”
~ William Temple

Pastor’s Welcome and Announcements

A cry room for small children with televised worship is available in the Fellowship Hall during the service.

Prelude “Man of Sorrows” (Bulletin Insert)

Invocation

Call to Worship John 4:21-24

Hymn of Praise “How Great Thou Art” (T44)

Hymn of Adoration “I Will Glory In My Redeemer” (1)

I will glory in my Redeemer whose priceless blood has ransomed me.
Mine was the sin that drove the bitter nails and hung Him on that judgment tree.

*I will glory in my Redeemer who crushed the pow’r of sin and death.
My only Savior before the holy Judge. The Lamb who is my righteousness,
The Lamb who is my righteousness.*

I will glory in my Redeemer. My life He bought, my love He owns.
I have no longings for another. I’m satisfied in Him alone.

I will glory in my Redeemer, His faithfulness my standing place.
Though foes are mighty and rush upon me my feet are firm, held by His grace.
My feet are firm, held by His grace.

I will glory in my Redeemer who carries me on eagles’ wings.
He crowns my life with loving kindness. His triumph song I’ll ever sing.

I will glory in my Redeemer who waits for me at gates of gold.
And when He calls me it will be paradise, His face forever to behold.
His face forever to behold.

*For those who are able, please stand at these times.

*Confession of Faith

The Nicene Creed, Part V

Leader: The Nicene Creed, as written in AD 325 at the Council of Nicea, has been affirmed by the church throughout the ages, and is a good summary of the biblical and historical Christian faith.

So Christian, what do you believe about Salvation in Christ?

People: We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ . . . who, for us men and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate, by the Holy Spirit, of the virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and on the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures . . . whose kingdom will have no end.

God made known His justice toward His Son, who was charged with our sin, and He poured out His goodness and mercy on us, giving to us His Son to die, by a most perfect love, and raising Him to life for our justification, in order that by Him we might receive righteousness, forgiveness, and eternal life. By His free and absolute grace, God gives us true knowledge of His gospel wherein He kindles in our hearts an obedience of faith that embraces Jesus Christ alone for salvation, sanctification, perseverance, and glorification. To us for whom Christ has obtained eternal redemption, God certainly and effectually applies and communicates this redemption, uniting us to Himself by His Spirit, and revealing to us in the Word and by the Word the mystery of salvation.

Call to Confession

Genesis 17:1-3

Confession of Sin

“God’s Promises”

Almighty Father, we fall down before You today. We love and worship You. As weak sinners we desperately need Your forgiveness and grace for, like Abraham, we are often more ready to fall down and laugh at Your promises than to fall down in awe and wonder in the presence of Your majestic holiness and Infinite fountain of love. You have called us to walk blamelessly before You but we fall very short of this command and we are filled with fears, guilt and anxiety within, and with disappointment in ourselves and others.

Lord Jesus, we know we are blind to much of our sin and foolishly imagine ourselves to be doing quite well. Help us to stop comparing ourselves with others. Thank you that Your mercy is no match for all of our sins of self-hatred and self-righteousness. We praise You, Jesus, for You walked blameless and sinless in our place. When You were tempted by Satan to fall down and worship before him, You obeyed the Father’s will with absolute trust. In great love and full confidence in heavenly promises, You took upon Yourself every last ounce of blame for our disobedience and rescued us from ourselves, the Devil and the world.

Holy Spirit, fill us and grant us the faith to believe the promises You inspired in the Bible. We believe; help our unbelief! When sin threatens to reduce us to despair, show us the covenant love of Jesus and Him crucified for me and for all of Your people. Help us to shake off our guilty fears as we confess all our sins to You today. Forgive us, heal us and let us rise with great rejoicing. Help us to grow in holiness, love and obedience to the Father’s will. In Jesus’ name we pray, amen.

*Hymn of Response

“Psalm 58” (Tune: T402)

You rulers, do you know what justice is? Among mankind do you judge uprightly?
No, you devise injustice in your hearts and on the earth you mete out cruelty.

Even from birth the wicked go astray and from the womb untruthfully they speak;
Their wayward thoughts well up within their hearts and havoc with their lying words they wreak.

Their poison’s like the venom of a snake; they’re like a cobra that has closed its ear ~
However great the charmer’s skill may be, it pays no heed because it does not hear.

Destroy, O God, the teeth within their mouths; LORD, smite the lion’s jaw a mighty blow.
Make them disperse as water flows away, and blunt their arrows when they draw the bow.

May they be like the snail that melts away, or like a stillborn child that sees no sun.
Before a pot can boil on burning thorns, so swiftly shall the wicked be undone.

The just will tread the blood of wicked men; when they’re avenged, the righteous will be glad.
Then all will say, “The just have their reward; surely the judge of all the earth is God.”
