"The general principles on which the fathers achieved independence were the general principles of Christianity. I will avow that I then believed, and now believe, that those general principles of Christianity are as eternal and immutable as the existence and attributes of God."

~ John Adams in a letter to Thomas Jefferson on June 28, 1813

"The great, vital and conservative element in our [American] system is the belief of our people in the pure doctrines and the divine truths of the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

~ U. S. Congress, 1854

"I . . . [rely] upon the merits of Jesus Christ for a pardon of all my sins."

~ Samuel Adams' Last Will & Testament attested December 29, 1790.

Pastor's Welcome and Announcements

A cry room for small children with televised worship is available in the Fellowship Hall during the service.

Invocation

Call to Worship Psalm 29:1-2

Hymn of Praise "Crown Him with Many Crowns" (T295)

Hymn of Adoration "My Country 'Tis of Thee" (C807)

Confession of Faith The New City Catechism #25

Leader: Does Christ's death mean all our sins can be forgiven? (1)

People: Yes, because Christ's death on the cross fully paid the penalty for our sin, God graciously imputes Christ's righteousness to us as if it were our own and will remember our sins no more.

Scripture Reading Exodus 21 (PB62)

Hymn of Confession "I Boast No More" (2)

No more, my God, I boast no more of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before, to trust the merits of Thy Son.

*No more my God, no more my God,
No more my God, I boast no more.*

Now, for the loss I bear His name, what was my gain I count my loss;
My former pride I call my shame, and nail my glory to His cross.

*For those who are able, please stand at these times.

Yes, and I must and will esteem all things but loss for Jesus' sake;
O may my soul be found in Him, and of His righteousness partake!

The best obedience of my hands dares not appear before Thy throne;
But faith can answer Thy demands, by pleading what my Lord has done.

Call to Confession Romans 2:4

Confession of Sin National Confession of Sin

Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask Your forgiveness and to seek Your direction and guidance.

We know Your Word says, "Woe to those who call evil good," but that is exactly what we have done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and inverted our values.

We confess that we have ridiculed the absolute truth of Your Word in the name of moral pluralism.

We have worshipped other gods and called it "multi-culturalism."

We have endorsed perversion and called it an "alternative lifestyle."

We have neglected the needy and called it "self-preservation."

In the name of "choice" we have killed our unborn.

We have neglected to discipline our children and called it "building esteem."

We have abused power and called it "political savvy."

We've coveted our neighbors' possessions and called it "taxes."

We've polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it "freedom of expression."

We've ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it "enlightenment."

Search us, O God, and know our hearts today. Try us, and show us if there be any wicked way in us. Cleanse us from every sin, and set us free.

Guide and bless our nation's leaders who have been ordained by You to govern this great country.

Grant them Your wisdom to rule, and may their decisions direct us to the center of Your will.

We ask it in the name of your Son, the living Savior, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Hymn "God Is Our Refuge (Psalm 46)" (3)

*God is our refuge and strength, a present help in time of trouble.
Though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea,
Though the waters roar and foam, we will not fear.*

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of our God.
He is in the midst of his people. They shall not be moved.
Nations rage, kingdoms fall, and the earth melts.
The Lord of hosts is with us. The God of Jacob is our fortress. We will not fear.

Come and behold the works of the Lord, the awesome acts of God.
He makes wars cease and breaks the bow. Let the earth exalt Him.
Be still and know that He is God, we will not fear.
The Lord of hosts is with us. The God of Jacob is our fortress. We will not fear.

Prayer of Illumination Psalm 119:152-153

*"Long have I known from your testimonies that you have founded them forever.
Look on my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget your law."*
